

Southwark Street

57 Southwark Street, London Bridge, London, SE1 1RU

About Southwark Street

The building is arranged over 7 floors with the lower and ground floors dedicated to communal facilities.

The 4th and 5th floors are coming available soon and will be extensively refurbished by the Landlord. A roof terrace is proposed subject to the relevant consents being approved. Both floors are available soon on a fully inclusive managed office basis including internal fit-out works.

Ideally Located

Overlooking Flat Iron Square and close to Borough Market the building is surrounded by a plethora of social spots including restaurants, bars, local shops and the delights of Southbank.
